

POWER – Pushing Offshore Wind Energy Regions

Overview of the project

Michael Moll

POWER Project Manager (UK)
Suffolk County Council

POWER creates a North Sea competence network for offshore wind energy

POWER is co-financed by European Regional Development Funding through the Interreg North Sea Programme

THE POWER PARTNERS

Leading offshore wind energy regions

THE POWER PARTNERS

Members based
Energy Business
Organisations

Local/Regional Authorities

Business
Support
Agencies

Universities,
Research
institutes etc.

A total of 37 partners

The POWER activities

- strategies and knowledge
- supply chain development
- skills development

The POWER activities

- strategies and knowledge
  - North Sea wide „best practise“ guide
  - Information & Decision Support System(IDSS)
  - Information package incl. information centres & multimedia tools
- supply chain development
- skills development

The POWER activities

- strategies and knowledge
- supply chain development
  - regional and transnational supply chain studies
  - practical cooperation and exchange of experience
  - facilitating business networking opportunities
- skills development

The POWER activities

- strategies and knowledge
- supply chain development
- skills development
  - skills requirements study
  - data base of offshore wind training programmes
  - transnational harmonisation of vocational training certification
  - exchange on BA-MA education; summer school

German business visit to the East of England in September 2006

POWER intends to organise a visit of German businesses within the offshore wind energy supply chain to the East of England.

Aim: To encourage and facilitate business to business linkages between the German and English POWER regions.

Please fill in the questionnaire in your pack
if you are interested in participating in this event!

Further information at www.offshore-power.net

and from all POWER partners at this event!

